Internship Opening (Paid)

Position Title: Intern (Part-Time)
Position Location: New York City (Hybrid—in person and remote) or remote in the Washington, DC area

The Japan Center for International Exchange (JCIE/USA) is looking for an enthusiastic university student or a recent graduate to join our team based in New York as a part-time intern to support our programs and operations.

JCIE/USA is a nonpartisan, US-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with a mission to strengthen US-Japan relations and cooperation in building a safe, free, and sustainable world where all people can thrive. To this end, we organize policy dialogues and exchange programs that strengthen our people-to-people ties and address our shared challenges and goals (https://www.jcie.org/about-jcie-usa/). We are headquartered in New York City and our executive director is based in Washington DC. JCIE/USA collaborates closely with our partner organization in Tokyo, JCIE/Japan, a leading Japanese foreign affairs institute and a pioneer of US-Japan legislative exchanges in the 1970s.

Our exchange programs are designed to improve understanding among key members of the US policy community on the importance of US-Japan relations to our national security and prosperity and to strengthen their ties to Japan. Our US Congressional Staff Exchange program, which has been running since 1982, is one leading example. Our policy dialogues focus on addressing how the United States and Japan can collaborate on common challenges. Reflecting our countries’ shared interests and values, these programs not only address traditional security and trade issues, but also such critical mutual concerns as global health, democratic resilience, aging society, and gender equity. Our ongoing programs in this category include Global Health and Human Security, Democracy for the Future, Healthy and Resilient Aging, and the US-Japan Women Leaders Dialogue.

The internship may begin as early as February 19, 2024, and will continue until the end of June 2024, with an option for an extension if desired by the intern and needed by the employer.
